Xiaoyan Guo receives John Spice Award in Aging

Nov 6, 2020

Postdoctoral Fellow Dr. Xiaoyan Guo received the 2020 John S. Spice Award in Aging and was named the 2020 Distinguished Research Scientist by the Larry L. Hillblom Foundation.

This award recognized Xiaoyan's groundbreaking discovery of the molecular pathway by which human mitochondria signal stress to the cytoplasm, which was recently published in Nature:

Congratulations, Xiaoyan!
